

ANCIENT MOUND KARANKOT, FATEHABAD

Ancient Mound Karankot, Fatehabad 1st century BCE to 17th century CE

The ancient mound is located at village Bhattu Kalan, Tohana Tehsil in Fatehabad district of Haryana. The site is popularly known as Karankot. It was discovered in the year 2019. This lies at distance of about 35 kms from Fatehabad. The area is located on Tohana- Bhuna road.

Archaeological remains of Kushana to Guptas were recovered from this area. Probably the mound is on fortified area of that time. Remains of old temple datable to 9th -10th century CE and a brick well made of Lakhori bricks datable to late Mughal (17th century CE), have been found from the village.

Remains of Ceramics recovered

Brick remains of Kushana and Gupta period

View of mound