

Panipat Museum, Binjhol, Panipat

At Panipat Museum one has an opportunity to see antiquities, inscriptions, sculptures, arms and armors, pottery, archival documents, jewellery, art and craft objects, which are on display in the museum. It also provides a rare chance to witness bravery of valiant and patriotic warriors, who sacrificed their lives at Panipat battle, through some write-ups, photographs and trans-slides. One of the key attractions of museum is enlarged photographs of important miniatures. These miniatures are from Baburnama and Akbarnama. These have been obtained from collections of places such as National Museum of New Delhi, The British Library and Victoria and Albert Museum of London. The traditional objects were procured from various districts of Haryana.

